

PROFILE

REHEMA ISA

Co-Founder and Director Oya Solutions Group

- Business executive with over 25 years of experience in strategy facilitation
- 14 years in Corporate and Executive Education with a client portfolio that includes but is not limited to Yale University, Duke Corporation, Wits Business School, Regenesys, Stellenbosch Business Institute, designing and delivering leadership interventions for their clients
- Leadership coach and senior leadership sounding board working with leaders and their teams to deliver business outcomes while nurturing high performance teams.
- Innovator designing and bringing to life sustainable social enterprises promoting economic inclusion
- Podcaster and former publisher
- Conversation architect - curator of strategic conversations and safe spaces for constructive engagements
- Master Storyteller and orchestrator - working with individuals and organisations curating safe spaces for authentic storytelling, facilitating a greater connection between personal and organisation stories, developing inclusive teams and healthy work culture.
- Lecturer and process director - personal, strategic and organisation storytelling
- TEDx Licensee and coach, curator of the longest consecutively run TEDxWomen Live Events in Africa amplifying over 100 African women voices on the TEDx platform
- Former banker and runaway accountant
- Mother to two vocal and woke Gen-Z daughters

